History of the Franchise

Last season, 1987-88, the Flames enjoyed their most successful league season in the history of the franchise with a 48-won, 23-loss, 9-tie, 105 points record, to finish first overall (Presidents' Trophy) in the National Hockey League.

Someone once said, "There is a lot more comes out of the South than just cotton", and for southern Albertans and Canadians alike, truer words were never spoken. On May 21, 1980, the Atlanta Flames became the Calgary Flames; they would no longer play in The Omni (capacity 15,141); they would play in the Stampede Corral (capacity 7,242). They would no longer take to the ice displaying a fiery "A" on their jerseys, but rather thrill the fans with an explosive-looking "C".

Calgary's and the Flames' first ever NHL game in the Corral was against Quebec Nordiques, Oct. 9, 1980, a 5-5 tie. The last game was a 6-5 playoff win over Edmonton, April 18, 1983. In three seasons in the Corral the Flames played a total of 146 games (league, playoff and exhibition), including that thrilling 3-2 win over the Soviet National Team, Jan. 2, 1983. The Flames lost only 28 regular season and 4 playoff games in the Corral.

The Flames are in their ninth season of NHL play in Calgary and sixth in the Olympic Saddledome. The Flames and their fans are playing and watching NHL hockey from the best entertainment facility in North America. The Olympic Saddledome, now seats 19,626 for hockey. This state-of-the-art facility opened Saturday, Oct. 15, 1983 when Edmonton edged the Flames, 4-3.

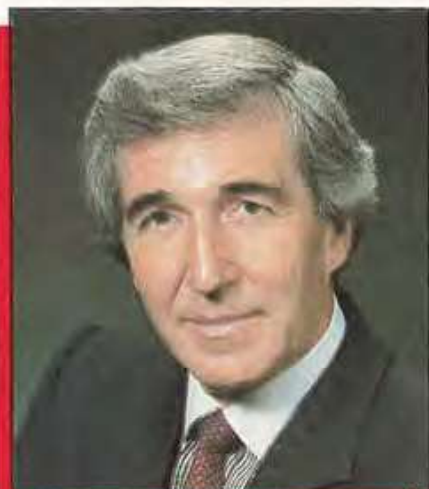

The history of the Flames' franchise unfolded when a group of Georgia businessmen, headed by Tom Cousins, based on solid marketing studies, the existence of a NBA basketball club, and a beautiful new building, applied for and were officially granted an NHL franchise June 6, 1972. The first game at The Omni matched the Flames against the Buffalo Sabres, and after 60 minutes, the Flames had earned their first NHL point on home ice: Atlanta 1, Buffalo 1. Ironically, the first game in Calgary also ended in a tie.

Not unlike the means by which the Flaming "C" came to represent the Calgary franchise, the name "Flames" was arrived at also by a contest in Atlanta that attracted some 10,000 entries, with judges from all phases of the media responsible for choosing the most representative nickname. Historically, General Sherman captured the city of Atlanta during the Civil War and burned the city down. The flames that engulfed the entire city were extinguished, and the rebirth of the Georgia capital began.

On May 21, 1980 Nelson Skalbania announced that he and a group of Calgary businessmen had purchased the Atlanta franchise and would move the team to Calgary. Sixteen months later Skalbania sold his interest in the franchise, and ownership of the southern Alberta franchise consists exclusively of six Calgary business people. (See pages 4 & 5).

President and General Manager

Cliff Fletcher

With the passing of each NHL season the Calgary Flames reputation and profile, on and off the ice, has received much praise. The man who has directed the franchise from its beginning in 1972 is Cliff Fletcher, the highly-respected President and General Manager.

His number one goal is to bring Calgary its first Stanley Cup. Last season, the NHL's Executive-of-the-Year engineered several trades, brought in Terry Crisp and Doug Risebrough as replacements for departed coaches Bob Johnson and Bob Murdoch. The result was a league and Smythe Division championship.

For the first time in the club's franchise the Flames finished first overall in the NHL and won the Presidents' Trophy. Several Flames' players who were drafted, obtained via trades, or signed as a free agent won individual league and all-star recognition.

The Flames reputation as an organization worth imitating continues to evolve. There are several Calgary-trained graduates with other teams in the league. The most recent, Jack Ferreira (GM) and Pierre Page (head coach), Minnesota.

A native of Montreal, Fletcher has been the only GM the Flames have had. He started in Atlanta in February 1972 and in the summer of 1980 helped move the franchise to Calgary.

Making trades and scouting and signing players are only some of the many responsibilities a President-General Manager of a NHL team confronts daily. He serves on and chairs many NHL committees.

Hockey is Fletcher's life. It began with the Montreal Junior Canadiens where he served as a scout for 10 years under the guidance of Sam Pollock. NHL expansion opened new avenues for Fletcher, and in 1967 he became Eastern Canada scout for the St. Louis Blues. Two seasons later he was promoted to assistant general manager.

Cliff has been involved in four Stanley Cup finals — as the head man with the Flames vs. Montreal in '86, and three consecutive years (1968, 1969, 1970) while he was in St. Louis. In 19 seasons with the Flames and Blues, his teams have missed the playoffs only twice, the last time 16 years ago in 1973. As the Flames GM Fletcher has a winning .531 percentage. He was GM for Team Canada in Canada Cup '81.

Cliff and wife "Boots" reside in Mount Royal, Calgary.

Assistant General Manager

Al MacNeil

Al is in his seventh season as the Flames' Assistant GM and 10th with the club. He is widely recognized for his discerning analysis of hockey talent, and he is responsible for all professional pre-scouting and monitors the progress of all players under contract or drafted by the Flames. He also consults with the coaches on these players.

This is nothing new for this veteran hockey person. This is Al's 27th season in professional hockey and he has been active — and successful — in nearly every phase of the game, on and off the ice.

He played eight seasons in the NHL as a rugged defenseman with Toronto Maple Leafs, Montreal Canadiens, Chicago Blackhawks, Pittsburgh Penguins and the New York Rangers. In 1968 he turned to the coaching ranks with Houston Apollos, then a farm club of the Montreal Canadiens. He moved into the NHL coaching ranks in 1970 and piloted the Canadiens to a Stanley Cup title that season. He is one of a few NHL coaches to win a Stanley Cup in his first year.

In 1971-72 he was named GM-Coach of the Nova Scotia Voyageurs in the American League. In six seasons in the AHL, he led the Flames to four first place finishes and three Calder Cup titles. He was an assistant coach for Team Canada in both the 1976 and 1981 Canada Cup Tournaments.

Al joined the Flames in 1979 as head coach, a position he held for three seasons. He was behind the bench when the Flames arrived in Calgary in 1980. During the team's first season in Calgary, he led the Flames to their first Stanley Cup semi-finals.

His four-year NHL coaching record consisted of 295 league games (134-108-53) and a .544 winning percentage.

On September 2, 1982, he officially left coaching to become Cliff Fletcher's first lieutenant.

A Maritimer, Al, his wife Norma and children Allison and Allister live in Calgary, but spend part of their summer in Big Pond, Nova Scotia.

Head Coach

Terry Crisp

Flames' head coach Terry Crisp has a tough act to follow. His own. He set several team records in his rookie season as a NHL coach.

For the first time in the Flames' franchise they won the Presidents' Trophy, finished first overall in the league with a team record 48 victories and 105 points.

The club established many new team and individual records, including a record-high 397 goals. And the Flames dethroned the Edmonton Oilers as Smythe Division league champions.

When the 45-year-old (May 28, 1943) native of Parry Sound, Ont. became the Flames' fifth head coach in the franchises' 16-year-history, May 22, 1987 replacing Bob Johnson, he said, "It's not my intention to fill Bob's shoes but to mold the team in my style of coaching."

"Crispy" did it "my way". The results are in the record books and they make for interesting reading. He is intense, vociferous, a tough competitor, dedicated, an intimidator, a motivator, a product from the old school, and most important — a winner.

The Sporting News named him NHL Coach-of-the-Year, and he was runner-up for the Jack Adams Award presented by the NHL Broadcasters' Association.

He had an admirable record at Sault St. Marie in the Ontario Junior League, and then for two campaigns, 1985-87, with the Flames' number one farm club when it was in Moncton.

The colorful Crisp played 11 seasons in the NHL with Boston, St. Louis, New York Islanders and Philadelphia. He was a member of the Flyers' two Stanley Cup champions in 1973-74 and 1974-75.

Crisp's coaching career started with the Flyers where he served two seasons as an assistant to Fred Shero. Then he moved into the head coaching position at the Soo, leading the Greyhounds to 3 division and 3 OHL championships. Twice he was selected coach-of-the-year in 1982-83 and 1984-85.

While at Moncton Crisp was instrumental in the development of several players now in the NHL. His two-year record in Moncton was 12 games above .500.

Terry and wife Sheila have three children, Tony, Jeffrey and Caley. All reside in Calgary except Tony who will continue his hockey career while attending University of Waterloo.

Assistant Coaches

Doug Risebrough

He was a winner as a player and a winner in his first season as a coach. Doug brought the same leadership and dedication he exemplified on and off the ice to his new position. His coaching career began June 9, 1987.

He has successfully made the difficult transition from a player to a coach. "Riser" is as competitive behind the bench as he was when he was on the firing line.

Doug played 13 seasons in the NHL, many with nagging injuries, restricting him to only 22 games in his final season, 1986-87. His career totals: 740 games, 185 goals, 286 assists, and 471 points, and a reputation of being one of the most competitive players in the game.

Doug came to the Flames just prior to the start of the club's 1982 training camp after nine seasons with the Montreal Canadiens where he helped the Habs to four consecutive Stanley Cups between 1976 and 1979. He was Montreal's second 1st round pick and 7th overall in 1974.

Offensively, Doug's best season with the Flames was his first when he scored 21 goals and collected 59 points.

His intensity on the ice will never be forgotten by Flame fans and he has exhibited that same quality as a coach.

Doug, his wife Marilyn and daughters Allison and Lindsay, are full-time Calgary residents.

Tom Watt

The Flames added 30 years of coaching experience — NHL, International, college and high school — Aug. 3, 1988 when Tom Watt, 53, joined the club as an assistant coach.

He returns to the NHL after spending last year as an assistant with Team Canada, the '88 Canadian Olympic Team, and Canada's entry in Canada Cup '87.

Tom, a career coach, began at the high school level, then 14 seasons as head coach of the U. of Toronto Blues, where he won 11 Conference and nine All-Canada championships. He compiled a remarkable winning 410-106-35, win-loss-tied (.776%) record.

Next, a co-coach of the '80 Canada Olympic Team, then his first NHL job as an assistant with Vancouver. A year later, 1981-82, Tom was head coach at Winnipeg. He excavated the Jets from last place (21st) to 10th overall for the greatest one season improvement — 48 points — by a NHL team. Following his outstanding season he was voted NHL Coach-of-the-Year and winner of the Jack Adams Trophy.

Twenty months later Watt was out of Winnipeg and back with U. of Toronto, only to return a year later to the NHL and Vancouver as the Canucks' head coach and assistant general manager for two seasons.

Tom and his wife Mabs, who have three children, are now permanent Calgary residents.

Coaches

Paul Baxter

Very few NHL players make the transition from player to coach of a professional team a success in their first season behind the bench. Paul Baxter did. He piloted Salt Lake Golden Seals to their second consecutive International Hockey League championship and Turner Cup last season.

Salt Lake finished second in the West Division (40-34-8), and came from behind to win all their playoff series. "Baxie" is back for his second season with the Golden Seals.

Paul played four seasons with the Flames after being signed as a free agent in 1983. His eight-year NHL career also saw him play with Pittsburgh and Quebec. He also performed in the World Hockey Association for four seasons with Winnipeg, Cleveland and Quebec.

A solid "open ice hitter" (over 1,500 minutes in penalties, including a league high of 409 in 1981-82), Baxter, who played for four different pro clubs, holds the distinction of never been traded.

Paul, his wife Julie and their three children — Nicole, Marcus and Laura live in Salt Lake City.

Glenn Hall

A few years ago when the Flames decided they needed someone special to work with their goaltenders they selected one of the all-time greats in Hall-of-Famer Glenn Hall. It was mid-way in the 1983-84 campaign that he joined the Flame family.

Glenn works with the goalies, and at special times points out any bad habits they may have acquired. He says he rarely tampers with a netminder's style.

During his playing days Glenn was one of the NHL's true superstars performing with Detroit, Chicago and St. Louis earning the nickname "Mr. Goalie". When he started in the NHL it was at a time when teams carried just one goaltender and between 1955 and 1962 he established a record that will never be broken playing in 502 straight games. He won several Vezina Trophies, all-star team honors and established several regular season and playoff records. He starred for Chicago when they last won the Stanley Cup in 1961.

Glenn and his wife Paula make their home in Stony Plain, a suburb of Edmonton.

Bob Francis

The 31-year-old Bob Francis is in his third season as an assistant coach with Salt Lake City. Last season, Bob's first as a full-time assistant to Paul Baxter, the Golden Eagles repeated as International Hockey League champions and winner of the Turner Cup.

A native of North Battleford, Sask., signed as a free agent with the Flames in '80 after two years at U. of New Hampshire, Francis, the son of Hartford Whalers' President-General Manager Emile Francis, played pro with Muskegon (IHL), Birmingham, Oklahoma City and Colorado (CHL), Detroit Red Wings (NHL), Adirondack (AHL) and Salt Lake. As a player-coach in 1986-87 he was the team's top scorer (98 points) and MVP.

Trainer

Jim Murray

Jim (Bearcat) Murray is a vital part of Calgary's hockey history. He is in his 9th season as the Flames' trainer.

'Bear's' ability to react instantly to on-ice injuries is well documented. Many times he has reached an injured Flame player before play has stopped. He is the only trainer in the NHL with his own fan club.

A native of nearby Okotoks, 'Bearcat' is versed in Calgary's hockey past. He was a player prior to becoming trainer for Scotty Munro's junior Centennials in the Western Hockey League and then for the Cowboys in the WHA.

'Bearcat', his wife Shirley and sons Allan and Danny, make their home in Calgary.

Equipt. Mgr.

Bobby Stewart

Bobby Stewart, the Flames' equipment manager, is in his 16th season with the club. Only President-GM Cliff Fletcher has been with the Flames longer.

Bobby, who has been around hockey teams since he was growing up as a 15-year-old in Montreal, is responsible for the sticks, skates, pads, helmets, sweaters, pants and all the equipment needs of the players and coaching staff. It's a never-ending job, but one he excels and revels in.

He joined the Flames in Atlanta in '73 and moved with the club to Calgary in July 1980.

Bobby, his wife Sherri and son Josh, make their home in Calgary.

If there is a Flame player who has been jinxed by the injury bug it's Perry Berezan. The centre-winger, who will be 24 during this season (Dec. 5, 1988), entered his 4th NHL campaign without having experienced an injury-free season.

Last season, the groin injury which plagued him through much of 1985-86 returned. After scoring his 4th goal Nov. 19, 1987 against Quebec, Perry was sidelined for 36 games. He returned to action Feb. 17, 1988 only to be knocked out of the Flames-Oilers playoff series when he sustained a concussion when checked by Mark Messier in game 3.

Perry scored 5 of his 7 goals last season at the Saddledome, but arguably the No. one goal in Flames' history was when he got the winner in Edmonton in the deciding game of the great 1986 Smythe Division final. The scoring play unfolded early in the third period with Perry dumping the puck into the Oiler zone and then headed to the Flames' bench for a change. Edmonton defenceman Steve Smith picked up the puck, rounded his goal and in a pass intended to a teammate at the blueline he banked it off goalie Grant Fuhr and into the Oiler net. Berezan, the last Flame, to touch the puck got credit for an unassisted goal "he didn't see."

Perry wasted no time scoring in his first 4 games in the NHL. He recorded points in every game with his first NHL goal coming March 20, 1985 at Toronto. The Edmonton native and University of North Dakota Fighting Sioux (WCHA) prodigy, was the Flames' 3rd choice, 56th overall in the 1983 Entry Draft.

Probably the best musician on the team, Perry started as a tot playing the accordion, but soon switched to the piano. He's the Flames answer to Ray Charles.

Not many professional athletes are pleased when they are traded, but for Shane Churla it meant coming home and an opportunity to prove he belonged in the NHL.

When the Flames obtained the tough right winger, Jan. 3, 1988 he was playing for the Hartford Whalers farm team (Binghamton) in the American Hockey League.

In 29 games as a Flame, Churla, a role player, scored one goal, had five assists and 129 minutes in penalties. The former Medicine Hat Tiger scored his first NHL goal March 12 at the Saddledome in a 10-4 win over Buffalo.

A native of Fernie, B.C. Shane was drafted by Hartford in 1985. His first season as a pro was with Binghamton — 4 goals, 10 assists, 14 points, 306 penalty minutes in 52 games.

Noted for his rugged and aggressive style of play, he is no stranger to the penalty box. In his final season in the WHL with Medicine Hat he collected 370 minutes in penalties, and in his year at Binghamton, 306 penalty minutes.

Shane was married during the past off-season to Stephanie Valley on June 29, 1988.

Acquired: Free Agent, signed August 6, 1986

After 42 games in the minors with Moncton of the AHL, Doug Dadswell made the jump to the NHL last season where he was back-up to Mike Vernon. The rookie net-minder fashioned a winning record (8-7-2) in helping the Flames capture their first regular-season pennant. One of his strongest games was a 3-3 tie in Chicago Feb. 21, 1988, in which he was selected the Molson Cup number one star. He was star number two following a 28-save performance against Washington Jan. 10, 1988 as the Flames won 8-2, and second star in the club's 5-3 win at Chicago Jan. 3, 1988.

Perhaps the NHL game that Dadswell recalls most was April 2, 1987 at Edmonton where he was selected the number one star, stopping 42 shots, as the shorthanded Flames and Oilers tied 4-4. That was his second game in the NHL.

His first was the infamous "Snowstorm Game" in New Jersey Jan. 22, 1987. Dadswell had been called up from Moncton. He was battling the flu and the game at the Meadowlands started 2 hours late, with only 320 people in attendance. Not a dream NHL debut, and to make matters worse the Flames lost, 7-5.

Dadswell was a Flame free agent signing out of Cornell where he was a teammate of Flame Calder Cup rookie sensation Joe Nieuwendyk. At Cornell Doug was all-America in his second season. During a 2-year span he compiled a 37-17-4 record.

Centreman Doug Gilmour became a Calgary Flame September 5, 1988 after spending five NHL seasons with the St. Louis Blues.

In 1987-88 Gilmour was the Blues best threat on the powerplay, scoring a team record 19 goals. His point totals (36 goals, 50 assists) were good enough for second spot in Blues' team scoring, while playing in 72 games. Doug recorded 41 points (19 goals, 22 assists) in his last 31 league games. He had 21 multiple point games and led the team in shooting percentage with 22.1%.

Doug (drafted by St. Louis, 4th choice, 134th overall, in the 1982 Entry Draft) recorded 20 or more goals in each of his five seasons with the Blues. After the departure of Rob Ramage to Calgary, he was named assistant captain.

Doug lists his biggest thrill in hockey as the 1987-88 Canada Cup, when he helped Team Canada defeat the Soviets for the championship.

Over the years Doug worked with the St. Louis Heart Association. He and his wife Robyne have one daughter, Maddison.

This spirited centerman has a "never say die attitude", and has earned a reputation of being an intense competitor.

It was a plus for the Flames last fall when defenceman Brian Glynn emerged from training camp with a position on the team. The rookie Flame 2nd round draft pick from 1986 was not expected to start the season in Calgary but his persistent hard work paid off.

He started the regular-season by displaying a talent that was rarely evident in his junior days in the WHL with Saskatoon Blades — scoring goals. He scored a goal in his very first NHL game on opening night as the Flames defeated Detroit 5-1. Ten games into the season the big blueliner (6'4", 224 lbs.) had 4 goals, but would score only once the rest of the way to finish with 5 goals and 14 assists.

Glynn was born in West Germany where his father was in the armed forces, but came to Canada as a tot where he learned his hockey.

The Flames' mid-summer conditioning check on the rookie players in their system paid dividends for Glynn. When he reported in July of 1987 he was over the weight level the Flames assigned him. He spent the balance of the summer in Calgary working out daily with veteran Tim Hunter, and by training camp Brian was in top form.

Brian spent the past off-season in Calgary playing in several golf tournaments and slo-pitch with the Flames.

Calgary fans saw a great deal of Jiri Hrdina in International competition and now they are looking forward to seeing how well he does in his first full season in the NHL.

After watching Hrdina compete for Czechoslovakia in three Canada Cup Tournaments, World Championships, the Calgary Cup and the Olympics, Calgarians finally got to see him as a Flame March 3, 1988 when he made his NHL debut at the Saddledome against Philadelphia. He responded with an assist on a goal by Jim Peplinski as the Flames won, 6-3.

However, the two goals that the Czechoslovakian native scored last season in 9-games as a Flame were on the road, the first March 15, 1988 at Hartford, the second at Quebec. He got all 5 of his assists at home.

The 30-year-old (Jan. 5, 1958) Hrdina joined the Flames at the completion of the Calgary '88 Winter Olympics. He was drafted by the Flames in the 8th round of the 1984 Entry Draft. The Czech Ice Hockey Federation allowed him to come to the Flames last year, and his family will be joining him for the 1988-89 season. By NHL rules he is classified as a rookie even though he has years of international hockey experience.

For a number of years he was one of the premier players on the Czech National Team and was a leading scorer in the top Czech League.

Although he speaks little English, Hrdina is an out-going sort and blended in very well with his Flame teammates, many times leaning on teammate Hakan Loob to help with language difficulties. His nickname is "George."

The 1988-89 season has veteran winger Mark Hunter in his eighth season in the NHL and first as a Calgary Flame.

Hunter finished the 1987-88 season with the St. Louis Blues with 63 points (32 goals, 31 assists), despite missing 14 games due to various injuries. Mark, who has a strong and accurate shot, was second in power-play goals with 14, and he had 18 multiple point games.

As a Blue, since 1985-86 he recorded 30 or more goals in three consecutive seasons.

After playing four seasons with the Montreal Canadiens, Mark (who was Montreal's 1st choice, 7th overall in the 1981 Entry Draft) was traded to St. Louis June 15, 1985 for a number of draft choices.

Mark is the youngest of three hockey-playing Hunter brothers (Dave with Pittsburgh, Dale with Washington).

He and his wife Linda spend the off-season in Oil Springs, Ontario.

The character of Tim Hunter was exhibited publicly prior to the start of the 1987-88 campaign when Flame coach Terry Crisp selected him as one of the team's alternate captains. Always a solid team player the promotion was proof of Hunter's leadership qualities.

An aggressive competitor Tim again led the Flames in penalty minutes (337) last season, surpassing the 300-minute mark for the second consecutive year. He is the club's all-time leader with 1,441 minutes. Six of his 8 goals were scored at the Saddledome where he is very popular. Those six goals helped Cystic Fibrosis with its 65 Roses campaign where local business firms pledge money for every Flame goal scored at the Saddledome. Tim is chairman of that campaign.

In the playoffs Hunter was an offensive power scoring 4 goals in 9 games, and he was the club's top plus player with a +7.

Tim joined the Flames organization in 1979 when they were still in Atlanta. He was a defenceman, but was converted to a right winger by coach Bob Johnson.

He was the first Calgary native to play for the Flames, followed by Mike Vernon and Dana Murzyn.

During the off-season Tim likes to work on automobiles, plays golf and plays slo-pitch with the Flames. This past summer Tim, his wife Kim and daughter Kelsey welcomed a new family member, daughter Taren, to the Hunter clan.

What a difference a year, a successful off-season shoulder operation, and renewed confidence did for Hakan Loob. It skyrocketed the Swedish speedster to an all-star, record-breaking season.

Rebounding from a poor — for him — 1986-87 campaign, Hakan was instrumental in Sweden winning the World Hockey Championship in 1987. The shoulder operation kept him out of the '87 Canada Cup Tournament, but when the NHL season started he was on his way to many firsts and several records.

The first Swedish player to score 50 goals in a season (it came in the final game of the regular season with only 3:05 left to play vs. Minnesota at the Saddledome); first Flame to be voted by a vast majority to an NHL First All-Star team (right wing); only the second Flame to capture the prestigious Molson Cup twice; led the Flames in scoring (50 goals, 56 assists, 106 points); 9th overall in the NHL in scoring and 2nd in shorthanded goals with 8; tied Flames' record with 5 three-goal "hat tricks", including a 4-goal game vs. Philadelphia; 6 points (3-3) against Buffalo; a plus 41, third best in NHL; among top marksmen, scoring on 25.3 percent of his shots on goal.

In the playoffs "Loober" was the Flames' offensive leader with 8 goals in 9 games, with a hat trick at Los Angeles.

Loob, who was the right wing on the NHL rookie all-star team in 1983-84, has averaged 33 goals and 69 points in his five seasons in the league.

Hakan, a versatile athlete, plays a good tennis game and is near "unbeatable" at table tennis.

Acquired: 1981 Entry Draft, 1st round, 15th overall

Nobody likes to be the backstop, specifically when Al MacInnis, who is recognized as having one of the hardest shots in the NHL, is on the firing line. Last season he became the first Flame defenceman to score 25 goals in a season. He anchored the league's most potent powerplay, where he accounted for 46 of his 83 points.

Although bothered by knee injuries earlier in his career, MacInnis has missed only one game over the past two seasons, and the 1987-88 campaign was the first time he played in all 80 league games. He was second in scoring among league defencemen with a career season high 83 points. MacInnis was one of three Flame defencemen to represent the Campbell Conference in the '88 NHL all-star game at St. Louis. It was his second all-star performance.

For the second straight season he led the Flames in shots on goal with 245, scoring 13 of his 25 goals on the road.

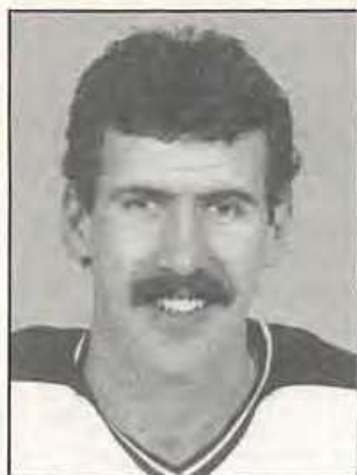

The 25-year-old Nova Scotian was an NHL second team all-star defenceman in 1986-87. He was a two-time all-star in the junior Ontario Hockey League and the league's top defender in 1982-83, tying Bobby Orr's then-record 38 goals.

Al, a fine golfer, participated in many charity golf tournaments during the off-season, and with the Flames slo-pitch team.

Can defenceman Jamie Macoun overcome tremendous odds and come back after being involved in a near-fatal accident? Jamie says yes.

Last season was rehabilitation time for the 27-year-old when an automobile accident in the summer of 1987 left him with severe nerve damage in his left arm. Macoun undertook extensive and concentrated therapy after the accident. He made great progress and thought he would be back playing in late last season. The return was postponed. Now, Jamie says he has recovered and is looking forward to his 5th full NHL season with Calgary.

Flame President-General Manager Cliff Fletcher feels that if there is one player who can bounce back from such adversity it's Macoun. "Jamie is such a determined individual that he could rebound without really missing a beat and we're hoping he'll be able to do that, but we won't know until he gets into game action again."

In his last season, 1986-87, Jamie had the Flames' top plus-minus rating with a +33. He and Al MacInnis were one of the top defence pairs in the NHL. However, in the '87 playoffs his fortunes turned sour. A serious abdominal injury suffered during a playoff game at Winnipeg sent him to hospital and out of action for the balance of the season. Then the summer car accident.

As a rookie in 1983-84, Jamie was named to the league's all-rookie team on defence and in 1985 was a member of Canada's team that won the silver medal at the World Hockey Championships.

Jamie is co-owner of two stores — Animals, Animals — which market stuffed animals.

It proved to be a great trade for the Flames. They gave a first and a third round draft choice to get Brad McCrimmon from Philadelphia just prior to the start of the 1987-88 season. The burly defenceman was more than worth the two draft picks.

McCrimmon lost no time in becoming the leader of the club's defence corps. The respect and recognition he first earned at Boston and then at Philly was enhanced with the Flames. He was named to the league's second all-star team, finished fourth in the voting for the Norris Trophy as top defenceman, and won the Emery Edge award with the best plus-minus record, plus 48.

Whenever a Flame defenceman was struggling last season, coach Terry Crisp teamed Brad, a steady influence, with him. For the most of 1987-88 McCrimmon was paired with Gary Suter, who was the league's top-scoring defenceman.

McCrimmon, the old-style stay-at-home defenceman, still managed to score 7 goals — 2 were game winners. Six of his goals were scored in the Saddledome, where he collected 27 of his 42 points. He was one of five Flames to play in the NHL All-Star game and one of 4 to play in all of the team's 80 league games.

A star with the 1979 Memorial Cup Champion Brandon Wheat Kings, McCrimmon was one of two first round draft picks of the Boston Bruins before going to Philadelphia.

His nickname is "Sarge", named after the celebrated TV personality.

A best-selling book, another award and a season of dedication, hard work and leadership spiced Lanny McDonald's 15th campaign in the NHL.

Lanny, in 1987-88, became one of the club's leading checkers, and notwithstanding the scoring exploits of Loob, Nieuwendyk, Bullard and Mullen, his club record 66 goals established in 1982-83 still stands.

Now in his 16th season and one of the league's elder statesmen, Lanny has three main goals for 1988-89: first a Stanley Cup ring, 500 career goals (needs 11) and 1,000 career points (needs 12). Last season he scored his 204th goal as a Flame placing him 3rd on the franchise all-time list.

He made key contributions in several games. He was the Molson Cup number one star in the final game of the regular campaign, registering a goal and an assist, as the Flames clinched first place overall and won their first ever Presidents' Trophy beating Minnesota, 4-1. Three times he has scored in overtime in Stanley Cup playoff competition.

He was the first winner of the King Clancy Memorial Award for commitment/service to hockey. He is involved in many charities but the Special Olympics is where he is most active.

Since becoming one of the few New York city-born players to make it to the NHL in 1982-83, Joe Mullen has become one of the league's more consistent scorers and last season he made it to 40 goals for the 5th consecutive year. Mullen averaged a goal in every other game in 1987-88, collecting his 40th in the second last game of the season.

Joe was one game short of tying a club record for goals in consecutive games when he fashioned a 6-game streak from March 12-24, 1988, scoring 7 goals. Kent Nilsson holds the record with a goal in 7 straight games.

Mullen is recognized as a pure goal scorer and was effective on the road as he was at home. He scored 22 of his 40 goals and 45 of his 84 points away from home. He registered 5 game-winning goals and had 4 assists in a game against Los Angeles Nov. 13, 1987. Joe, in 1986-87, became the second Flame to win the Lady Byng Trophy. In his 2-plus seasons with the Flames, Mullen has had 17, 2-goal games.

Mullen is the only player to score 20 goals in the minors and 20 goals in the NHL in the same season, in 1981-82 with Salt Lake City (Central League) and St. Louis (NHL).

He started last season with Team USA in Canada Cup '87. Mullen also played for the American squad in the 1984 Canada Cup.

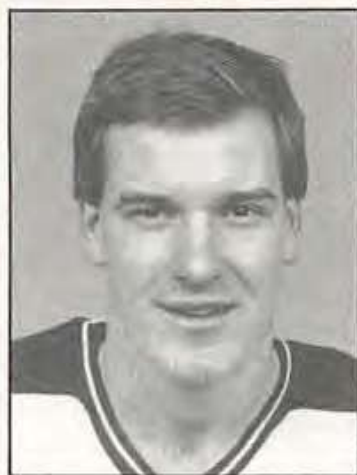

During the past 2 seasons Joe's scoring exploits helped raise money for the Calgary Zoo. The Zoo named one of the kangaroos — "Mully" — after him.

(MIRR - zin)

In the Flames first trade of 1988 they added their third Calgary minor hockey product to their roster, when they obtained defenceman Dana Murzyn from the Hartford Whalers.

The Flames planned to draft Murzyn in 1985 but the Whalers, with an earlier draft choice, made the Calgary Wrangler graduate their number one pick, 5th overall.

At the time of the trade (Jan. 3, 1988), Murzyn was struggling and he could have wound up with another team. However, he was surprised to learn he would be returning home to Calgary, where his father is a police officer.

Shortly after becoming a Flame, his play improved. With Hartford last season Dana scored only one goal, he got 6 with the Flames, and his minus-8 in 33 games with the Whalers was reversed with Calgary where he was plus 9 after 41 games.

Dana is in his first full season as a Flame and 3rd in the NHL. The last time he represented Calgary was in 1984-85 with the WHL Wranglers. He scored 32 goals and 92 points and was named to the league's first all-star team on defence. As a Whaler he was named to the NHL's all-rookie defence team with Gary Suter in 1985-86, and at that time was touted as being another Larry Robinson by Whaler officials.

Dana, a Calgarian, married Kim Negenman, also a native Calgarian during the off-season on July 23, 1988.

What a difference a year and a change in scenery did for Ric Nattress's plus-minus NHL record in his first season with the Flames. His two minus seasons with St. Louis Blues was drastically reversed last season when he recorded a plus 14.

Nattress helped plug the Flames' defence which started last season minus four veterans. Paul Baxter (head coach Salt Lake City) and Brian Engblom retired, Jamie Macoun was recovering from an automobile accident and Paul Reinhart was unable to play because of back problems.

Nattress had his own injury problems during the second half of the 1987-88 season. He went down with a back injury Jan. 13, 1988 at Edmonton and didn't return until Feb. 7, 1988 and later was sidelined when he reinjured his back during the playoffs.

Ric, a defensive defenceman, recorded 10 of his 15 scoring points on the road, and he needs 16 points to reach 100-career points.

The Hamilton native and Brantford Alexanders (OHL) graduate, was selected in the second round of the 1982 draft by Montreal. In 1985 the Canadiens sold him to St. Louis. He was one of the Blue's leading defencemen in the 1986 Campbell Conference final against the Flames. Thirteen months later the Flames obtained him from the Blues at the 1987 Entry Draft.

Nobody says, "Joe Who?" anymore. Everybody knows who he is and how to spell his name correctly. Not since the legendary Mike Bossy has a rookie captivated the hockey world with his deceptive goal-scoring technique.

And like Bossy 11 years ago, Joe's incredible scoring was somewhat unexpected. Neither Bossy or Nieuwendyk was considered a blue chip can't-miss prospect when they were drafted, but it's in the record book how Bossy became one of the league's greatest scorers. If Joe's first season is an indication of what the Flames can expect, he's on his way to a great career in the NHL.

"Newy", with 51 goals, came close to breaking Bossy's rookie record of 53 goals, but he is only the second freshman in NHL history to reach the magic 50-goal plateau.

He was a runaway winner of the Calder Trophy as Rookie-Of-The-Year getting all but one first place vote.

What a season he had: 51 goals, 92 points; 31 powerplay and 8 game-winning goals; 4 hat tricks; first Flame to twice score 4 goals in a game, the first Nov. 19, 1987 at the Saddledome vs Quebec and Dec. 13 at Buffalo; and 33 of his goals were scored at home.

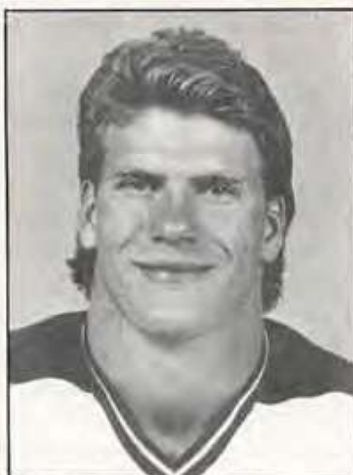

Joe's NHL baptism came late in the 1986-87 season upon completion of his 3rd year at Cornell University. He scored 5 goals in his first 9 games and 2 more in 6 playoff games.

He was All-America in 1985-86 and Cornell's MVP his final collegiate year. Joe was the draft choice the Flames received from Minnesota for Kent Nilsson. He was chosen in the 2nd round, 27th overall in the 1985 Entry Draft.

Last season was bitter-sweet for big (6'4", 229 lbs.) centreman Joel Otto. The knee injury he sustained late in 1986-87 season returned early in the 1987-88 campaign and bothered him for most of the season. He was to miss 18 games.

Otto was in excellent shape entering last season after competing for coach Bob Johnson's USA team in Canada Cup '87. He got off to a great start opening night in a 5-1 win over Detroit. Joel was chosen the Molson Cup No. 1 star. However, it proved to be a costly victory for Otto as he re-injured his knee and would not return until Nov. 17.

The 27-year-old (Oct. 29, 1961) 4-year veteran from Elk River, MN had a productive second half, scoring 9 goals and 34 points. He finished with a plus 16, even though he had the difficult job of facing the league's most prolific and toughest centreman.

A key man on the Flame's potent powerplay, Joel's main role was to distract and screen the goalie which resulted in many Calgary goals. Otto scored 4 powerplay goals, one shorthanded goal and 4 of his 13 goals were game winners. His NHL career totals after last season were: 61 goals, 112 assists, 173 points, and 599 minutes in penalties.

He was signed by the Flames as a free agent in 1984 out of Bemidji State, a Division II U.S. college.

Injuries and bad luck continued to dog Colin Patterson during the 1987-88 season. The hard-checking left winger appeared in only 39 games, his lowest total in 5 seasons in the NHL.

The injury bug which started during the Stanley Cup final of '86 against Montreal returned early last season. Colin suffered a serious hamstring in the 6th game Oct. 18, 1987 against Boston. The injury came just after he scored his 1st goal of the season. He wouldn't play until Dec. 8, 1987 and he was back on the sidelines Dec. 31.

Consequently, Patterson played in only 11 games during the first half of the season and 28 in the second half. A tough checker, Colin often is assigned the task of checking many of the league's high-scoring forwards. He is an excellent role and team player. He scored 11 of his 18 points on the road.

During the 1986-87 season when he played in a season career high 68 games, scored 13 goals and was a plus performer, he was recognized for his solid defensive play. Colin received many votes for the Frank Selke Trophy, which goes to the top defensive forward.

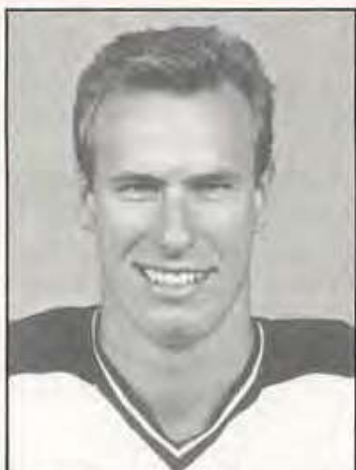

"Pater" is one of a number of Flame free agent signings who has paid dividends. The 28-year-old (May 11, 1960) native of Rexdale, Ont., played 3 years at Clarkson College before turning pro. He obtained a degree in Business the summer of '87.

Colin is one of the Flames' top pranksters and he has a warm, dry sense of humor.

Co-captain and left winger Jim Peplinski holds the Flames' record for most games played (620), surpassing Eric Vail (550) during the 1987-88 season.

Jim, who has played in all 80 league games four times in his 8-season career with the Flames, was prevented from making it five when he was loaned to the Canadian Olympic Team for the '88 Winter Games. He missed 5 Flames' games.

Peplinski and Paul Reinhart are the only players still with the team since its first season in Calgary, 1980-81.

Last season "Pepper" became a 20-goal scorer for the 3rd time. He had 4 game-winning goals, scored 12 times at the Saddledome, and 13 of his goals were registered during the first half of the season.

A durable performer, Jim has not sustained any serious injury. He has missed only 20 games (5 because of the Olympics) in 640 league games in 8 NHL seasons. He did suffer a shoulder injury Feb. 14, 1988 at Washington, but that didn't sideline him. He returned to Calgary to join Canada's Olympic Team and played despite the injury.

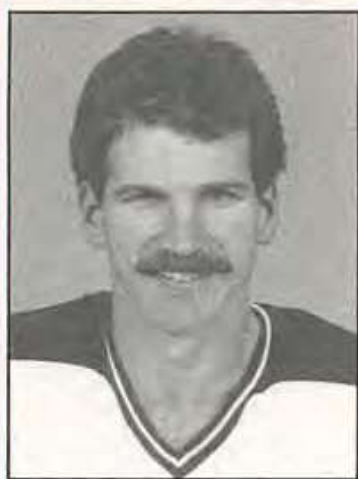

Not noted for being a prolific scorer, Peplinski shares the club record, with five others, for most goals in one game (4) scored in his 100th career game Nov. 17, 1981 against Winnipeg. His career totals at the start of the current season were 147 goals, 237 assists, 384 points, and 1,211 penalty minutes.

Jim is involved with many charitable organizations. He is honorary chairman of Big Brothers, and last season he was named the second winner of the Ralph T. Scurfield Humanitarian Award (see pg. 14).

RAMAGE 55

Weight: 195

Shoots: Right

Last Amateur Club: London Knights (OHA)

Acquired: Trade with St. Louis, March 7, 1988 with Rick Wamsley for Brett Hull and Steve Bozek

(RAM-aj)

The numeral "5" is important to Rob Ramage. When he wore a Calgary jersey for the first time March 9, 1988 he sported a "55". It was the highest number ever worn by a Flame.

Rob, who turns 30 this season (Jan. 11, 1959) and is in his 10th NHL campaign, finally became part of a contending team last March 7 in a four-player deal with St. Louis.

The Flames were looking for an experienced two-way defenceman. For 6 seasons Ramage had been the Blues' top rearguard — a team leader — and prior to that a valued member of the Colorado Rockies (now New Jersey Devils), where he and Lanny McDonald were teammates. His trade to the Blues in '82 was for two 1st round draft choices.

He started his pro career in 1978 as one of the famed "Baby Bulls" with Birmingham of the World Hockey Association. After one season in the WHL and the demise of the league, Rob was Colorado's 1st choice and 1st overall in the NHL 1979 Entry Draft.

In his first game as a Flame he was named the Molson Cup No. 1 star. He had 2 assists and a strong defensive game vs Winnipeg. After 9 seasons, the Byron, Ont. native has scored 109 career goals, 326 assists and 435 points. He has performed in several NHL all-star games, and for Canada in World Hockey Championships.

Height: 6-1

Shoots: Left

Last Amateur Club: Guelph Platers (OHL)

Acquired: 1984 Entry Draft, 1st round, 12th overall

Last season Gary Roberts became a Flame regular. Calgary's 1st round pick, 12th overall in the '84 Entry Draft developed into a robust and tenacious competitor.

His aggressive and no-quarter-given style of play was reflected in his 282 minutes in penalties. Gary took on all comers and he didn't back away from anybody. A hard-nosed checking forward, the 22-year-old from North York (suburb of Toronto) scored 13 goals and 28 points. He was a plus 24.

Gary will remember his first NHL game and goal, Nov. 11, 1986 when he scored the insurance goal in a 5-3 win over Vancouver.

Roberts and Joe Nieuwendyk played on the same line for parts of last season as they had when they played minor hockey and lacrosse as teenagers in Whitby, Ont.

In his first pro season, 1986-87, which Gary divided between the Flames and their then number one farm team at Moncton of the AHL, and coached by Terry Crisp, Roberts averaged a-point-a-game. He scored 20 goals and 18 assists in 38 games, and with the Flames 14 points via 5 goals and 9 assists in 32 games.

Gary had two 44-goal seasons as a junior in the OHL with Ottawa and Guelph. He captained Guelph Platers to the Memorial Cup championship in 1986 and was an outstanding lacrosse player on a Mann Cup senior championship team.

It was an all-star, record-breaking 1987-88 season for defenceman Gary Suter. He shattered his Calder Trophy winning rookie season of 1985-86 and rebounded from a knee injury and sophomore jinx of two seasons ago.

The 24-year-old native of Madison, WN led all defencemen in points last season with 91 (21 goals, 70 assists). He was named to the NHL 2nd All-Star Team and finished third in the balloting for the Norris Trophy as the league's top rearguard.

He set or tied several Flame records: most points and assists by a defenceman in a single season; new consecutive game point streak of 16 games, and tied club assist mark with one or more in 9 consecutive games.

The amazing part was he accomplished it after missing the first four games of the season resulting from a suspension for an altercation during Canada Cup '87, and an experiment that had him playing left wing for several games.

The change came when he was returned to his defence spot and paired with Brad McCrimmon, who Gary credits with his turn-about.

As in his rookie campaign Suter had a very strong second half. He had 15 goals at the Saddledome, including a memorable one New Year's Eve, when on a sensational individual effort he skated the length of the ice to score the game-winner with only 8 seconds left to play for a 5-4 win over Philadelphia.

A 9th round draft choice in '84, Gary played 2 seasons at U. of Wisconsin before turning pro. He represented the USA in the '85 World Championship and '87 Canada Cup.

VERNON 30

Goaltender
Born: Calgary, Alberta
Date: February 24, 1963
Height: 5-9
Shoots: Left
Last Amateur Club: Calgary Wranglers (WHL)
Acquired: 1981 Entry Draft, 3rd round, 56th overall

Figures don't lie. Last season Mike Vernon had the best winning percentage (.644), fewest losses (16), and second most wins (39) and games played in (64), the latter two Flames' records, amongst NHL goaltenders who played in at least 47 games. Edmonton's all-star goalie Grant Fuhr led in wins (4) and games played in (75).

Mike finished high in the voting for the league's all-star team and the Vezina Trophy. His first appearance in an NHL All-Star game was for the Campbell Conference in St. Louis, Feb. 9, 1988.

During the 1987-88 season Vernon had winning streaks of 7 and 6 games and a 14-game undefeated streak. He had one shutout, 4-0, over Chicago Nov. 30, 1987. He had 10 games in which he allowed only one goal. In his two full seasons as a Flame he has won 30 and 39 games, respectively.

Vernon, Fuhr and Ron Hextall battled for most points by a goalie. Fuhr led with 8 assists, Vernon with 7 assists and Hextall with a goal and 6 assists, tied for second.

One of three Calgary natives on the team, "Mikey" vaulted into prominence with the Flames in 1986 when his late season and outstanding playoff performances helped Calgary advance to the Stanley Cup final for the first time in their history, before losing to Montreal. He fashioned a 2.93 goals-against-average and challenged for the Conn Smythe Trophy as MVP.

The 25-year-old (Feb. 24, 1963) netminder played 3 years of junior with the Calgary Wranglers and twice was selected as the Western Hockey League's MVP.

Acquired: Traded with St. Louis, March 7, 1988 with Rob Ramage for Brett Hull and Steve Bozek

When the Flames obtained Rick Wamsley in a four-player trade with St. Louis prior to last March's trading deadline, they were after another winning goalie. They got one.

Rick is in his 8th season in the NHL. Prior to becoming a Flame he was with St. Louis for nearly 4 seasons and before that 3 with Montreal. He started this season with a winning percentage of .569 and a career record 148 wins, 98 losses, 31 ties.

His first game as a Flame was a 5-3 victory over Winnipeg Jets at the Saddledome, March 10, 1988. Rick's next start, six nights later in Hartford all but ended the 1987-88 season for him at 12:31 of the 1st period when he suffered a serious groin injury doing the splits making a save. He didn't return to action until the final playoff game at Edmonton.

While a member of the Canadiens and then Blues, Rick held a "hex" over the Flames. In 16 games he won 14 of them.

His NHL goals-against-average has consistently hovered around the 3.50 mark. His best was as a rookie in 1981-82 when he shared the William M. Jennings Trophy with Denis Herron. That season Rick had a 23-7-7 win-loss-tied record and an excellent 2.75 GAA.

The 29-year-old (May 25, 1959) native of Simcoe, Ont. played junior for Brantford Alexanders of the OHA. He was Montreal's 5th choice in the '79 Entry Draft.

ANY FLAME CAN WIN THE MOLSON CUP. ALL IT TAKES IS GUTS, DETERMINATION AND TALENT.

Hakan Loob

Hakan Loob was the seventh Flames' player, eighth winner and third right winger to win the prestigious Molson Cup. He finished the '87-88 season with 95 points.

Loob won $3,000. overall during the season, including $1,000. for finishing first. He donated $1,000 to the Canadian Cancer Society, Calgary Unit and $1,000 to Juvenile Diabetes and the remaining $1,000 to various charities.

The Molson Cup will again be awarded to the Flame player who receives the greatest number of points from the Three Star selections.

NHL's Look For 1988-89

The National Hockey League is in its 72nd regular season with Conference and Division alignment and an unbalanced schedule that will focus attention upon some of the greatest rivalries in sport. The following is the same format as last season.

CLARENCE CAMPBELL CONFERENCE

Smythe Division

CALGARY FLAMES

Edmonton Oilers
Los Angeles Kings
Vancouver Canucks
Winnipeg Jets

Norris Division

Chicago Blackhawks
Detroit Red Wings
Minnesota North Stars
St. Louis Blues
Toronto Maple Leafs

PRINCE OF WALES CONFERENCE

Patrick Division

New Jersey Devils
New York Islanders
New York Rangers
Philadelphia Flyers
Pittsburgh Penguins
Washington Capitals

Adams Division

Boston Bruins
Buffalo Sabres
Hartford Whalers
Montreal Canadiens
Quebec Nordiques

UNBALANCED SCHEDULE

Each of the 21 teams will play an 80-game schedule, with those teams in the Smythe, Patrick and Adams Divisions having eight games (four home, four away) against each of their Divisional opponents, plus three games each against the remaining 16 teams in the League. In the case of the three games against the remaining clubs, teams will play two home, one away or vice-versa, alternating the extra home game each year.

The six clubs in the Patrick Division — New Jersey, New York Islanders, New York Rangers, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Washington — will play each other seven times with three games against each of the remaining 15 teams. The home ice differential will be alternated each season.

STANLEY CUP PLAYOFFS FORMAT

At the conclusion of the regular schedule, the top four finishers in each of the Divisions will qualify for the Stanley Cup playoffs.

The Divisional Semi-Final round features the first place club opposing the fourth place team and second versus third in a best-of-seven series. The winners of each series will advance to a best-of-seven Divisional Final series, with the team with the highest standing during the regular season receiving home-ice advantage.

The four divisional winners will meet in a best-of-seven Conference Championship. It will be the Smythe Division versus the Norris Division for the Campbell Conference championship, while the Patrick Division will oppose the Adams Division winner for the Prince of Wales Conference title. The Conference champions will meet in a best-of-seven final series for the Stanley Cup.

In the Conference championships, the home ice advantage will be gained by the team which secured more points during the regular season.

For Stanley Cup play, home ice advantage will go to the team which secured more points during the regular season than its opponent. The final series will be a 2-2-1-1-1 format.
